

in association with Court Street Films

a narrative of wilkes county, georgia

volume one

INTRODUCING THE STORIES OF OUR CENTURY!

A Narrative of Wilkes County, Georgia: Volume One brings to life the intimate story of Washington, a rural Southern town, and her influential county as told by lifetime residents; both male & female, black & white, privileged & poor. Sharing over 150 years of stories & recollections ranging from slavery to school integration to women's rights, the Narratives describe in detail how one little town managed to overcome the turbulent cultural obstacles of the twentieth century and define the ultimate meaning of the word community. DVD's are available for purchase online at www.historyofwilkes.org or at the following local retail establishments:

Washington Historical Museum
308 East Robert Toombs Ave.
Washington, GA 30673
706-678-2105

Retro Cinema & Books
114 Spring Street
Washington, GA 30673
706-678-6900

Talk of the Town
East Square
Washington, GA 30673
706-678-7661